GRADUATE EDUCATION E-RESOURCES & LINKS

Academic Apprentice Manual

https://grad.ucla.edu/gss/appm/appmintro.htm

The manual explains official UCLA policies and procedures for the appointments of graduate students to all academic personnel titles. Two versions of the manual exists one created for students and other for departmental staff. Both contain information on how to find appointments, minimum requirements for appointments, terms of employment, benefits, tax information, TA training programs, fee deferments, offsets, and remissions. The department version also includes an appointment checklist, exception to policy procedures, remission benefits processing, title codes, and TA advance loan checks instructions.

Academic Program Reviews

http://www.senate.ucla.edu/programreview/

The primary goal of the Academic Program Reviews is to evaluate the quality of UCLA's undergraduate and graduate education. Reviews are intended to be helpful and supportive in (a) recognizing strengths and achievements, (b) promoting goal setting and planning, and (c) identifying areas in need of attention. Reviews should primarily seek perspectives useful to the units whose programs are under review and to their respective academic deans. They should also give Senate agencies and senior administrators an informed overview of the strengths, problems, and needs of academic units.

Go.Grad

https://go.grad.ucla.edu/

The Graduate Division's Go.Grad website is an intranet portal designed to streamline digital access to key business functions and applications for staff and faculty. On Go.Grad, staff and faculty can manage and administer Electronic Thesis & Dissertation (ETD) filing, Visiting Graduate Researcher (VGR) appointments, Fellowship Awards Transmittal transactions (formerly known as Form 10), and online submission and review of fellowship applications, among other Graduate Division services. In addition, Go.Grad is designed to consolidate services from the Jasmine intranet into a one-stop shop for our many campus constituencies.

Graduate Adviser's Manual
